Fill the Gaps – Editorial Comment, News and Views

Dear Collector,

Welcome to our latest auction catalogue - Fill the Gaps 25.

Many thanks to those of you who have provided comments, advice and asked about my hip situation. I know I am not alone in having gone through this, and my mobility and general health are now much improved. The challenge I had of moving boxes – in some cases heavy boxes – around and up and down stairs, has been resolved. I can now do this again, when a few months ago it was extremely difficult to do.

A few general notes.

- The Post Office have just announced their price increases for this year – and sort of admitted that the service in some geographic areas has been poor. (I am sure that many of us could and perhaps have told them this). We still receive several bid forms via the post after the auction has closed. All I can suggest is that you post them as early as possible and remember that we accept bids via email and over the phone.
- Talking of email – there are a few of you who still use the old email. When sending bids please use the new email address. (auctionsbil@btinternet.com)
- We still receive bid forms without a name on. Please can you double check that you complete both sides of the bid form before sending it to us.
- The new apprentice is working out well. (Someone told me I had to put this in)!

And finally, the football prediction of gloom and doom for QPR is coming to fruition. One lucky win in seven games has seen them stagnate in the table, and I think they may struggle to maintain a play-off place. Time will tell!

As always if you have any questions or comments, feel free to call, write or email.

Remain Healthy and Positive and Best Wishes to you and yours for 2022 and beyond.

Best Regards
